

Monitoring While on Therapy

Home infusion therapy is safe and effective.

However, you should watch for complications. If you experience any of these, please call your nurse.

- Trouble flushing the line.
- Redness, swelling, or drainage around the line.
- Pain around the line.
- Bleeding around or from the line.
- Medications leaking around or from the line.
- Fevers greater than 100.4 or chills.